

Brief Bio

Name: Thakane Molapo

Role: Trustee

WK UWSCA (1973-1976)

Thakane is a trustee of the Waterford Kamhlaba Foundation of South Africa.

She currently holds the position of Community Liason for the American International School of Lesotho since 2019.

Thakane is experienced in strategic financial planning, customer relations and legal mitigation.

She has over 10 years of achievements in research grant management and administration. She has been successful in managing research projects of multi-million dollars. Her experience has also been cultivated from her background as a legal associate at Lyle Legal services, grants and contracts specialists II at the University of Connecticut as well as being the procurement agent at Storrs, Connecticut.

Thakane has a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration and Finance from College of Notre Dame, USA and a Juris doctor in law from University of Connecticut.