

THE WATERFORD KAMHLABA COOKBOOK

The cookbook aims to unite people from across the world over a shared passion for food, which is especially important in this time of isolation. It consists of a compilation of recipes that UWC students, teachers and alumni have submitted.

Anyone who has a recipe that means something to them through family or in their culture, we would appreciate your contribution as well as the story behind the food! People can contribute using this link:

https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSeP0ZFR9qk0uYzmm96G2IgE_CxECsVSdw7clUan-CALYyofLg/viewform?pli=1

The link can also be found on Instagram @linkgroupwaterford's bio.

The closing date to submit your recipes is Saturday , 19 Sep 2020 and information regarding the sale of the cookbook will be communicated soon. All proceeds will go to St. Joseph's school who made a large contribution by designing the artwork in the cookbook.

